Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

- ☐ Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

- ☐ Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

12/15

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245	filing fee
$75	administrative fee
+	$15 trustee surcharge
$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$550	administrative fee
	$1,717	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCreditAndDebtCounselors.aspx>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

CHAPTER 7 REPRESENTATION AND FEE AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”)

I, Andres Lopez, (“You” or “Client”), agree to retain Corbin Law Firm, LLC (“CLF” “We”), to represent Client in a bankruptcy case to be filed under Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the “Case”). If Client later desires to file under Chapter 13 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, the parties will execute a new representation agreement.

IMPORTANT:

- The advice you receive from CLF may change as we complete a more detailed analysis of your situation and the “Means Test” calculation. CLF will inform you of any changes.
- Corbin Law Firm, LLC is considered a debt relief agency under the Bankruptcy Code because we help individuals get a financial fresh start using the bankruptcy laws.

1. ATTORNEY’S FEES, COURT FEES AND OTHER COSTS

- a) ATTORNEY’S FEES. You will pay CLF a retainer of $1,200.00 in attorney’s fees for “Standard Services” (described below) under this Agreement. Client agrees to pay CLF an INITIAL RETAINER of $415.00 for attorney’s fees leaving a balance due of $785.00. Remaining balance is payable after the case is filed.

Advance Payment Retainer

You agree to and understand that CLF will treat the retainer as an “advance payment retainer”. This means that CLF will place the retainer into its general account and the retainer will become the property of CLF. You also understand that you have the option to require CLF to treat your retainer as a security retainer. But you have decided to proceed with an advance payment retainer because we both agree that an advance payment retainer is to your advantage as CLF will immediately start working on your case and the retainer will be earned immediately or within a short span of time, and because it will keep the funds out of the reach of your creditors.

“Work Done” Basis

The retainer will be earned on a “work done” basis. This means that even if you decide not to proceed with your case the retainer will already be partially or fully earned because we will have expended significant time and effort working with you and on your behalf. Therefore, if you terminate CLF’s representation or if CLF withdraws its representation due to Client’s breach of this Agreement, you may not be entitled to a refund or may only be entitled to a partial refund even if your case is not filed. CLF charges an hourly rate of $250.00 per hour for attorney time and $90.00 per hour for administrative staff time.

- b) COURT COSTS. The court’s Chapter 7 FILING FEE is $335.00. The filing fee is in addition to attorney’s fees above. The filing fee will remain your property until the funds are used to pay the filing fee when your case is filed. [Court costs must be paid before the case is filed.]
- c) TOTAL COSTS PAYABLE TO CLF: $1,568.00

Attorney’s Fees for Chapter 7 – Flat Fee	Court Costs Chapter 7 Filing Fee	Consolidated Credit Report:	TOTAL PAYABLE TO CLF:	Credit Counseling — Course #1	Credit Counseling — Course #2
$1,200.00	$335.00	$33.00	$1568.00	$14.95 (paid direct)	$9.95 (paid direct)

2. ASSIGNMENT OF FUNDS. Client assigns to CLF all amounts tendered for costs and authorizes CLF to transfer said funds from CLF’s client trust account to CLF’s operating account in payment of outstanding fees and costs owed to CLF.

3. STANDARD SERVICES. These are the services CLF will provide under this agreement. CLF will:

- ☐ (a) provide and explain all bankruptcy disclosures as required by the U.S. Bankruptcy Code;
- ☐ (b) analyze your financial situation;
- ☐ (c) advise you about relief under Chapters 7 and Chapter 13 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and about non-bankruptcy options;
- ☐ (d) explain and assist you with all requirements to file your Petition (voluntary petition, schedules, statements, creditor list, verification, and notices (collectively the "Petition")) and with obtaining a discharge under the Bankruptcy Code;
- ☐ (e) advise you about exemptions and apply the exemptions to your property;
- ☐ (f) prepare your Petition;
- ☐ (g) file your Petition;
- ☐ (h) assist you in negotiating reaffirmation agreement(s) when necessary and if requested by you;
- ☐ (i) prepare you for the initial trustee meeting ("Trustee Meeting," i.e., 341 meeting or meeting of creditors) and assist you with assembling the documents for the Trustee Meeting;
- ☐ (j) provide the case trustee with documents required for the Trustee Meeting;
- ☐ (k) represent you at the Trustee Meeting or provide another attorney (after notice to you);
- ☐ (l) respond to requests for information by the U.S. Trustee or the case trustee;
- ☐ (m) prepare motions to remove liens on your personal property under 11 U.S.C. 522(f)(2) and judicial liens under 11 U.S.C. 522(f)(1), but only if agreed to prior to the signing of this Agreement. If not agreed to prior to the signing of this Agreement, avoiding a lien will be an Additional Service (see below).
- ☐ (n) file the debtor's education certificate (second credit counseling course);
- ☐ (o) monitor the case and communicate with you, the case trustee, U.S. Trustee, and creditors or other parties of interest as necessary;
- ☐ (p) assist with enforcing the automatic stay as necessary;
- ☐ (q) provide notices of the case to stop lawsuits, wage garnishments, citations to discover assets, utility shutoffs, driver' license suspensions (if bankruptcy automatic stay applies).

4. BANKRUPTCY SERVICES CLF WILL PROVIDE AFTER FILING THE CASE FOR AN ADDITIONAL FEE. You agree that CLF will provide the following services, if necessary, after the case is filed and YOU ALSO AGREE TO PAY CLF for these services as they may be necessary to you obtaining your discharge:

- ☐ Amendments to Schedules: $100;
- ☐ Amendments to Schedules to add omitted creditor(s): $150 ($100 plus $30 filing cost plus $20 for service of amended schedules);
- ☐ Representation at continued Trustee Meeting: $150;
- ☐ Representation at Rule 2004 Examination: Hourly Rate;
- ☐ Preparation and Attendance at court hearings (only on Standard Services matters, e.g.: Creditor's Motion for Relief of Stay): Hourly Rate.

5. "ADDITIONAL SERVICES" BANKRUPTCY SERVICES THAT ARE NOT PART OF THIS AGREEMENT. Complex and time-consuming matters may arise in a chapter 7 bankruptcy case. Sometimes such matters can be anticipated, but often they cannot be. These matters are generally contested and difficult and time consuming to defend therefore they are not included in this Agreement. Most common examples of such matters are:

- Adversary proceedings (lawsuits inside the bankruptcy case) to determine dischargeability of a debt;
- Objections to your discharge;
- Defense of claims of bankruptcy abuse;
- Defense of preference or fraudulent transfer actions;
- Redemption of property;
- Any proceedings in a state court or other tribunal;
- Adversary proceedings of any kind;
- Appeals;
- Fixing credit report errors.

6. OTHER COMMON BANKRUPTCY SERVICES NOT PART OF THIS AGREEMENT.

- ☐ Reopen case (usually due to your failure to take the second credit counseling course): $100 plus $260 filing fee;
- ☐ Conversion from Chapter 7 to Chapter 13: Chapter 13 fees will apply;

For the excluded matters, Client may retain CLF or any other attorney of Client's choice to represent Client. Client may retain CLF, if CLF agrees to represent Client, for an additional retainer under a separate representation agreement.

7. IMPORTANT TERMS, CONCEPTS, CONSEQUENCES, AND PRINCIPLES. You agree that you understand the following:

- ☐ Effect on your Credit. Bankruptcy is a "financial event. "As such, like a late payment, a collections action, or a court judgment, the bankruptcy will appear on your credit report. The bankruptcy should appear under each creditor listing as well as under the "public records" part of the credit report. A chapter 7 bankruptcy will stay on your credit report for up to 10 years. The bankruptcy may have a negative effect on your credit score and it may negatively impact your ability to obtain future credit or refinancing.
- ☐ Public Proceeding. Bankruptcy is a public proceeding that takes place in a federal court. Your case will be filed in the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois.
- ☐ Automatic Stay. This is the name for the bankruptcy protection. The automatic stay does not go into effect until your case is filed. Therefore, keep in mind that calls, lawsuits, wage garnishments and other actions to collect may continue and liens can attach to your property until the bankruptcy case is filed. You may therefore permanently lose your property.
- ☐ Dischargeability and Non-Dischargeability. Chapter 7 bankruptcy eliminates most but not all debts. Debts that are eliminated are referred to as "dischargeable" debts. Debts that cannot be eliminated are referred to as "non-dischargeable" debts. If applicable, CLF will advise you what debts will not be discharged (typically: student loans, parking tickets, child support, most taxes).
- ☐ Bankruptcy Notices. The bankruptcy court will notify all your creditors and interested parties about your bankruptcy case. Notices have to be generated and mailed. It may take up to 10 business days for the notices to reach your creditors.
- ☐ Time is of the essence. Any delay by you to cooperate with CLF may disqualify you from the bankruptcy or otherwise adversely impact your case by affecting your eligibility or the breadth of the relief you are seeking. An example of this is a change in your income (as it may affect the Means Test calculation) or and action by your creditor (e.g. foreclosure sale).
- ☐ Creditors. All creditors must be included in your case; bankruptcy is not a pick-and-choose proceeding. This includes debts you owe to your friends and family, small debts, and even debts that are not dischargeable. CLF will assist you with disclosing all your creditors but, ultimately, you are the only one who knows about all your obligations. Debts that are not included may not be discharged.
 - Secured Creditor: A creditor that has a lien on your property and can resort to repossession or foreclosure if you fail to pay the debt (e.g. mortgage, car loan, furniture loan).
 - Unsecured Creditor: A creditor that cannot take your property through repossession or foreclosure (e.g. credit cards, medical debts, student loans, etc...).

8. Your General Duties:

- ☐ Cooperation. You agree to cooperate with CLF, the case trustee, and the U.S. Trustee and to provide requested information and documents in a timely manner. You also agree to update CLF about changes to your circumstances including: income, expenses, property interests (acquisition or disposition), address, contact information, military service, etc... as well as to carefully review the Petition and be present and on time for all hearing and meetings.
- ☐ Truthfulness. You agree to provide accurate and complete information and documentation for your Petition and case. Honest and accurate and complete disclosure is crucial as inaccurate or incomplete disclosures can lead to the loss of your right to a discharge of your debts as well as serious civil and criminal prosecution.
- ☐ Reasonable Investigation. You must to do a reasonable investigation into your matters in providing the above information and documents. This means that you must take affirmative action and contact your creditors, dig through your records, and contact third-parties such as employers or former employers to assemble the required information.
- ☐ Notify CLF Before Acting. You must promptly notify CLF before making property and financial transactions that you do not normally make, such as giving money to family or friends, withdrawing money from any retirement account, incurring new debt (such as purchasing a car, using a credit card, taking out a payday loan, etc.), selling or giving away property. Such transactions –whether before the Case is filed or after – may negatively impact your case as they can be undone by the trustee and you may lose that property.
- ☐ Stop Using Credit. Once you hire CLF you must stop using credit. Using credit before filing bankruptcy may cause problems in your case as such credit use may be considered fraudulent and can be challenged by your creditors.

9. Your Main Duties Prior to Filing:

- ☐ Production of Documents and Information. You agree to provide CLF with the documents and information listed on the Checklist of Required Documents (incorporated into this agreement) and any other documents and information CLF, the case trustee, or U.S. Trustee may request.
- ☐ First Credit Counseling Requirement. You must complete the credit counseling requirement from an approved provider within 180 days prior to filing your case.
- ☐ Property Serving as Collateral. If you own property that secured a loan (home, car, furniture, etc.) you must decide what you want to do with that property. You can either surrender the property back to the creditor or choose to keep it.

10. Your Main Duties After Filing:

- ☐ Complete the Second Credit Counseling Course (Debtor Education Course). You must complete the second credit counseling course. This course is also known as the Debtor Education course. If you do not complete this course your case will be closed without a discharge.
- ☐ Attend the Trustee Meeting. You must appear at the Trustee Meeting. This meeting will take place 4 to 8 weeks after your case is filed. I will prepare you for this meeting and attend the meeting with you.
- ☐ New Interests in Property. You agree to promptly inform CLF of an inheritance, life insurance proceeds, or property received in a spousal property settlement agreement or divorce within 6 months after the case is filed.

- 11. Communications and Permissions. You authorize CLF to communicate with your employer(s), creditors, and any other entity CLF deems necessary by telephone (work, home, cellular), by fax, mail, and email. You also authorize CLF to fax, mail or email pages of the bankruptcy petition, schedules, bankruptcy notices, or any other documents CLF deems necessary to your employer(s), creditors, and any other entities CLF deems necessary. You authorize CLF to contact whomever necessary, including current and former employers and the IRS, to obtain any information CLF deems necessary, whether verbal or written, to support your disclosures and testimony in the Petition and this case.

12. Termination.

- a) You may discharge CLF at any time subject to payment of any fees owed for services rendered by CLF based on "work done" as explained above.
- b) CLF may withdraw its representation when CLF believes you are not complying with your duties as outlined in this Agreement and in the bankruptcy disclosures. When seeking withdrawal from the Case, CLF will abide to the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct and Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of Illinois.
- c) If Client breaches this agreement, Client will be responsible for attorney's fees and costs incurred by CLF that are associated with enforcing this agreement.

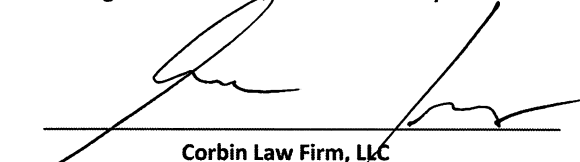

13. Authorization to run Credit Report. Client authorizes CLF to obtain Client's credit report.

14. Acknowledgement. You agree that you received the documents listed in subsections (a) and (b) and that said documents are made a part of this Agreement:

- a) Checklist of Required Documents
- b) Bankruptcy Disclosures:
 - Disclosure pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 527(a)(1) and 342(b)

 - Disclosure pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 527(b)
 - Disclosure pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 527(c)

15. Additional Terms: Client agrees to enter into a post-filing representation agreement agreeing to pay the outstanding attorney's fees. If Client does not enter into such agreement, Client understands that CLF will withdraw as counsel.

Mandatory Notice to Potential Clients with Primarily Consumer Debts as Required by U.S. Bankruptcy Code Sec. 527(a)(1)

(This information was taken verbatim from Official Form 201A, 11/11)

In accordance with Sec. 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General will examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation

($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income
($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization
($1,167 filing fee; $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman
($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Mandatory Notice to Potential Clients about Bankruptcy and Alternatives to Bankruptcy as Required by U.S. Bankruptcy Code Sec. 527(b)

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER.

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine.

1. Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial to you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules, and Statement of Financial Affairs, as well as in some cases a Statement of Intention need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of creditors where you may be questioned by a court official called a "trustee" and by creditors.
2. If you choose to file a chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.
3. If you choose to file a chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which will be before a bankruptcy judge.
4. If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than chapter 7 or chapter 13, you will want to find out what should be done from someone familiar with that type of relief.
5. Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

Mandatory Instructions to Potential Clients as Required by U.S. Bankruptcy Code Sec. 527(c)

The instructions below are required by the Bankruptcy Code and explain how to:

1. figure out Replacement Value;
2. calculate Current Monthly Income (CMI);
3. figure out Reasonably Necessary Living Expenses;
4. calculate Disposable Income;
5. determine asset Exemptions;
6. list Creditors.

1. How to figure out Replacement Value

The replacement value for items acquired for personal, family, or household use, is the price a retail merchant would charge for an item of that kind, taking into consideration the age and condition of the item on the day of your bankruptcy filing.

It is important to emphasize that replacement value is not what you would sell the item for in a flea-market. Replacement value is what you would pay a retail store for the similar item, in similar age and in similar condition.

Because most retail stores do not sell used items, your best bet to determine replacement value is to check stores that sell used items to the public, such as used furniture stores, musical instrument stores, used car dealerships, etc.. Alternatively, you can check online sites such as eBay, Craigslist, or similar online markets.

Example: Assume that you have a DVD player that is three years old. You have been using the DVD player regularly, and it works. The replacement value for the DVD player would be the price a used goods store would give that item considering its age and condition.

2. How to calculate Current Monthly Income

To calculate your monthly income you must total ALL income received in the 6 months before the month of your bankruptcy filing and divide that total by 6 to get the monthly average.

Income that must be included (if applicable) are:

- Wages and salaries;
- Self-Employment Income;
- Investment Income;
- Interest Income;
- Contributions from any member in your household who is contributing on a regular basis to household expenses; and
- Money earned from side jobs

Income that is not included:

- Benefits under the Social Security Act;
- Payments to victims of war crimes or crimes against humanity on account of their status as victims of such crimes; and
- Payments to victims of international terrorism (as defined in Section 2331 of Title 18) or domestic terrorism (as defined in Section 2331 of Title 18) on account of their status as victims of such terrorism.

3. How to figure out Reasonably Necessary Living Expenses

To figure out your Reasonably Necessary Living Expenses you must total all expenses for the 6 months before the month of your bankruptcy filing and divide that total by 6 to get the monthly average.

In figuring out your necessary living expense, DO NOT INCLUDE your credit card payments, repayments of unsecured loans, past-due medical bills, taxes, etc.. Examples of reasonably necessary living expenses are:

- Rent or mortgage;
- Utilities;
- Internet;
- Cellular Phone;
- Laundry;
- Food;
- Transportation;
- Charitable contributions;
- etc...(an expense worksheet is provided for you)

4. How to calculate Disposable Income

If your monthly average income is greater than your monthly reasonably necessary living expenses, simply subtract the living expenses from the monthly income; the remainder is your disposable income. (i.e. subtract no. 3 above from no.2 above)

5. How to determine your asset Exemptions

Exemptions are defined dollar amounts for certain categories of property that you can subtract from EQUITY of that property and keep for yourself. In other words, the amount of the exemption is the amount of your equity that can't be taken away. If you file bankruptcy in Illinois, the applicable exemptions amounts are defined by Illinois law. Corbin Law Firm, LLC will assist you and advise you on the proper exemption to claim for your case.

6. How to list your Creditors

You must provide the information listed below for each Creditor you owe money to prior to filing for bankruptcy protection. You must list ALL your creditors. Bankruptcy is not a "pick and choose" proceeding. You cannot leave some debts in, and leave some debts out. Everything must be included. The term Creditor is defined broadly and includes any entity (store, hospital, credit card company, etc.) or person (family member, the person that sued you in court and won, etc.)

- Name and Address of Creditor;
 - o A dedicated bankruptcy notice address IF provided by creditor; or
 - o Address on most recent statements from creditor;
- Account number (if any);
- Amount currently owed;
- When was the debt created;
- Whether the debt is a secured or unsecured
 - o If secured:
 - Description of item securing the loan;
 - Current value of the item;
- Amount past due;
 - o List name and address of collection agency / law firm (if applicable)
- Lawsuit information (if being sued)
- Judgment information (if any)
